

Thanks to Kate Coe for turning me on to this upcoming auction of the humongous collection of Michael Epstein & Scott Schwimer:

The Michael H. Epstein & Scott E. Schwimer collected works of glamour photography, fine art photography and contemporary art is one of the world's most unique. The compilations convey impeccable style and beauty that will stand the test of time.

In addition to owning the world's largest privately held glamour photography archive, Epstein and Schwimer are also the publishers of various George Hurrell editions, as well as those of Mel Roberts and Harry Langdon.
