

Midge dragged me out on the town last night, and what a time we had!

POST CARD

Dear Elnk, CORRESPONDENCE

Milwaukee has a bustling down town. This is the theater district. Midge insisted that we see some shows, and it has worked wonders for my spirits. Midge seemed to know just about everyone at the Riverside, a "Vaudeil" house in the Empire Building on the Milwaukee River's western bank. Their "Gay, Gayly Renee" certainly was gay! My hotel is the Schroeder, which is on the left in this postcard, just past the Alhambra Theater, just a few blocks down the Avenue.

Yours,

Nic RORO
